The Rev. Farrel Martin, D.D., of Waterbury delivered an eloquent discourse on Temperance in St. Mary's church, Derby, on Sunday evening.

The speaker related anecdotes of his everyday life among unfortunate men and gave interesting accounts of his experience. He then dweit upon the history of the movement. In 1861 at East Hampton, on Long Island, the first temperance movement was inaugurated among the farmers there, who sought to stay the ravages which they saw were being made by intemperance. In 1865 the citizens of New Haven, seeing the dangers in that community, took measures to check the evil.

First Temperance Society.

The first real temperance society in the world was formed in Litchfield county in 1789, when 200 farmers banded together for the purpose of abstaining and persuading others to abstain not only from the more ardent drinks but also from cider.

This movement grew until it spread all over the United States and then to Europe. Especially in Ireland the to Europe. Especially in Ireland the movement assumed large proportions and a society was organized in Wexford county in 1828 for the purpose of furthering the temperance cause. The movement then grew in Scottand, England and then even to the wine drink-ing and beer drinking countries of Europe. Work of Father Mathew.

About this time Father Mathew, the great temperance missionary, began his work. Father Mathew, in his par-ish work, visited places of wealth and ish work, visited places of wealth and places of poverty, and everywhere he saw the effects of intoxicants. He went into the places of fifth and into the prisons and saw that intoxicants were the cause of a large percentage of the misery. He then took the pledge himself and began his great work. He came to America in 1849 and during his stay here over 600,000 persons took the pledge and wore Father Mathew's badge.

The first Catholic temperance clety was formed in Hartford in 1841. At that time the Washingtonians were about to hold a parade and Father Brady conceived the idea of a great Catholic movement of the same nature. He accordingly organized a society of 104 adults and 40 young boys. Schubert Beethoven Schumann Schumann

HEAVEN'S SO NEAR.

Heaven is so near, when we go to find it We can't see clear for the glory behind It's right at our feet, but we never mind it!

Heaven is so near, but we sigh and sigh for it.
We mourn and grieve and pray and ery for it.
When the thing to do is to toll and try for it!

Heaven is so near that we bump right in it. On every mide and at every minute. That we live life right and deserve to win it!

Heaven is so near-like a soft wing pressing.

Of bloom and bird and the wind's caressing!

Heaven is so near it's the morning.

The duak's still hour, with the starlight gleaming.

Loved lips at the gate and the dear night's dreaming!

Heaven is so near—why, we search all around us.
Till it leans with its ear to our hearts to sound us,
And here in our own dear lance it has found us!
